

For Immediate Release

Libro Credit Union Supports West Haldimand Hospital

HAGERSVILLE, ON – Libro Credit Union’s Hagersville branch presented a $2,000 cheque to the West Haldimand Hospital and Healthcare Foundation today, in support of the organization’s 17th Annual Charity Auction. Libro Hagersville Branch Manager Kimberley Fleming made the special presentation.

“Supporting our local communities is one of the ways we help to grow prosperity right here in Hagersville and across southwestern Ontario,” said Kimberley Fleming, Libro Credit Union Branch Manager. “At Libro, we’re passionate about making investments in the communities we serve and partnering with organizations who are making a meaningful impact on the individuals, families, and businesses who live here.”

The Charity Auction is scheduled on November 19, 2016 at the Hagersville Community Centre.

In September, Libro shared $72,000 in grants with seven organizations across Haldimand and Norfolk counties through Libro’s 2016 Prosperity Fund, including Community Living Haldimand, Norfolk County Agricultural Society and the Dunnville Farmers’ Market Association.

About Libro Credit Union

Libro is Ontario’s third largest credit union with $3.8 billion in assets under administration and more than 100,000 Owners across southwestern Ontario. As a co-operative financial institution with more than 70 years of history, Libro supports the well-being of people, businesses and communities by providing high-quality financial coaching and profit sharing. Recognized as a 2016 Platinum Level Aon Best Employer in Canada, Libro is proud to support The Prosperity Project, which aims to grow prosperity in southwestern Ontario by mobilizing and inspiring collaboration, strengthening the financial health of people, families and businesses, and investing in our communities to help the region prosper together. Libro offers a full range of financial products and services for consumers, businesses and farms, including savings and chequing, investing, and borrowing. Great service can be experienced through 31 branches, online, telephone, mobile devices and a network of 4,000 ATMs across Canada. For more information, visit libro.ca/media.

###

*For further information or to set up an interview, please contact:
Chad Lovell, Communications Manager, Libro Credit Union
P: 519-672-0130 ext. 4423, C: 226-926-4068, chad.lovell@libro.ca*